

Suction gun SG-1

For manual suction of liquid remains.

A suction gun is recommended for removal of cleaning liquid and possible solids from eventual cavities of the objects which would never or only slowly dry due to their shape.

Compressed air is connected to the suction gun with a hose DN 8 and the outlet hose is connected to the hose connection in the machine.